The Aesthetics of Natural Lines

The "Lotus" porcelain tableware collection embodies natural aesthetics, with every line echoing the form of a blossoming flower. A striking relief emerges from the centre of each piece and, like the petals of a lotus, unfolds smoothly towards the edges, creating a lively play of light and a distinctive tactile texture. The gently flaring rims of the plates, meanwhile, lend the silhouette a particular lightness and elegance.

The collection is available in three shades – white, sand and black – each revealing the surface relief in its own way: white emphasises the purity of the lines, sand infuses the table setting with the warmth of natural tones, and black makes the texture particularly deep, graphic and expressive.

The range includes dinner, dessert and bread plates; deep soup bowls; bowls of various sizes; and elegant cups, saucers and mugs of different capacities. This variety allows for harmonious table settings for breakfasts, lunches, dinners and cosy tea parties, all while maintaining the collection's unified style in every detail.

"Lotus" blends seamlessly into contemporary interiors, minimalist schemes, natural aesthetics and modern classics, while also serving as a striking focal point in more traditional spaces. It is a collection in which natural form meets contemporary design, transforming every table setting into a serene, elegant composition.
